SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

- St. John's International School provides an English-speaking education that is grounded in Christian values, encourages academic excellence, and stimulates social development within a culturally diverse environment.
- St. John's was founded in 1964 and educates students from more than 50 countries in grades pre-K to 12. The class of 2018 will graduate 61 students.
- St. John's Middle-High School population includes students representing more than 35 countries.
- Waterloo is located 10 km south of Brussels, the capital of Belgium and Europe, and headquarters to the European Union and NATO.

CURRICULUM AND ACCREDITATION - GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

- The school is fully accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, the European Council of International Schools and the International Baccalaureate Organisation. The most recent re-accreditations occurred in 2011 (IBO) and 2012 (MSACS, ECIS).
- The school awards a General Diploma and an Academic Diploma. A student may also work towards the International Baccalaureate Diploma which is awarded upon successful completion of requirements set by the IB organization.
